ALL DAY	Student Center	QR Code Hunt (30-60 min) If you or a friend have a SmartPhone with a QR code reader, keep an eye out for 20 QR codes posted throughout the Student Center. Each code launches a photo of an item that represents something cultural associated with one of the five languages at this year's showcase: Chinese, French, German, Latin, and Spanish. Don't know what something is? Seek out someone from that language and ask! The most correct answers wins, or in the case of a tie, the first one turned in.
	Everywhere	Shodo: Japanese Calligraphy Paintings At any time, browse the beautiful artwork on display created by Wellington Elementary 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students. Tweeting We will be tweeting throughout the day using the hashtag #wls13. We invite students with Twitter accounts to chime in.
9:00	Worsham	Group Video (3 hours) Work in teams to produce a 2-3 minute video using the target language. Students will receive their instructions and then have the rest of the morning to write and film their production.
9:30	Worsham	Geocaching (2 hours) You'll need some friends and a GPS-enabled phone with a camera to participate in this event. You'll also need to be able to walk about 2 miles round trip across UK's beautiful campus. Note: Two hours is an estimate. You could take more or less time depending on your ability to locate each cache... complete with a target language clue! Spanish, French, German, and Latin only.
10:00	CB 345	Chinese Tea Demonstration (45 min) Try different Chinese teas and learn about the art of the tea ceremony in China.
11:00	CB 345	Chinese Calligraphy (45 min) Learn to paint Chinese characters, and take your artistry home with you!
	CB306	Russian "Gangnam Style": Grilled Absolute North Games Near or Around Moscow (30 min) Volunteers from the Russian division will introduce you to some "interesting" music.
13:00	OSC 359	Chinese Martial Arts Demonstration (45 min) Get moving with a Chinese Martial Arts demonstration! Suitable for all students.
	CB 345	Chinese Mini Lesson (45 min) Ever wondered what Chinese sounds like? Would you like to learn some basic expressions? This is the perfect opportunity to sample the language with representatives from UK's Confucius Institute.

We'll form teams on the spot. The most outstanding presentations will win large rosette ribbons at the awards ceremony at 2PM!
	CB 333	Photo Trivia: Famous People Edition (1 hour, Intermediate) Come test your knowledge of famous French people. We'll briefly explore French slang and abbreviations used for text messaging and social media such as Facebook or Twitter. Then learn about some famous French video bloggers. Afterward, get ready to test your knowledge of well-known French authors and artists.
	CB 337	Fake English en français (30 min) The world is anglicizing, as are various languages. French is an example of one of the those languages that has adopted various anglicisms. Yet, what's interesting is that these anglicisms become "frenchified" by the French language to the point that they are no longer able to be immediately understood by a native english speaker. As a result, the French language has an entire lexicon of "fake english" in their language, that is primarily used in every day speech. Come to the presentation to figure out what un zapping and un brushing means in both the English and French language.
	CB 331	5-card flickr (30 min, Novice) In this non-competitive version, you will see five images and must use them to create a cohesive story. Teams will present and compare their stories. You are welcome to stay for the competitive version at 13:30!

German

Time	Location	German Language Event
8:30	Worsham	Orientation
9:00	Max Kade	Sich vorstellen! Get to know your fellow German students and practice your conversational skills while you warm up for the day's activities.
9:10	Max Kade	Simon sagt How good are your listening skills? See how long you can last, then take turns giving commands to your fellow students. Pictionary The moderator will choose a word out of the dictionary at the back of a German textbook which you will have to draw for your team. Your team has to guess the correct word in German (WITH ARTICLE, when appropriate). If your team doesn't guess it in 2 minutes, the other team has a chance to steal a point.
9:30	Max Kade	Charades Choose an activity from a list and act it out for your team silently. If your team doesn't guess it in 1 minute, the other team has a chance to steal a point. Balderdash auf Deutsch The moderator will randomly select a word from a German dictionary and teams will write down what they think it means. The words are collected and then each group votes on what they think the word means (the correct meaning will be among them). 2 points for the correct answer and 1 point if the group's word has the most votes.
10:00	Max Kade	Flirting auf Deutsch Learn some cheesy pick-up lines and practice your smooth moves (or letting your partner down easy). Watch a video where some German girls take to the streets with some of the cheesiest ones and watch how the guys react. Word Games Test your coordination, memory and multitasking skills!
10:30	Max Kade	Geschichte erzählen (5 Card Flickr) Pick five "cards" from the photos shown. Then use those photos to tell a story auf Deutsch. The story can be as simple or elaborate as you want. Have fun and be creative! Wer bin ich? Use your German skills to discover your secret identity (secret only to you) by asking your fellow students yes/no questions.
11:10	Max Kade	Bingo Make your own bingo cards with your favorite animals (auf Deutsch). Then listen for the moderator to call them out and see if you get BINGO! Mein Monster Mein Monster: Draw a monster and then describe your monster to your fellow students, who have to draw what they hear. Then compare and vote on who has the closest match. At end: vote on who has the most creative monster and who was the best describer.
11:30	Max Kade	Schwarzwälder Kirschtorte Make individual black forest cherry cakes according to instructions in German.

Latin

Time	Location	Latin Language Event
8:30	Worsham	Orientation
9:00	NSC 230	Speaking Latin Workshop Let's get off to a great start! With the help of the Classics TAs at UK (who are fluent in Contemporary Latin), see what speaking Latin means in the 21 st century. We'll start in a large room in the Student Center and then make our way over to the classroom building as a group for the rest of the day.
9:30	CB 343	Life as a Medieval Scribe: Make your own manuscript page! Ever wondered just how we can read "arma virumque cano" still today? Or how much work it took to produce a manuscript? Or just how those scribes managed to preserve Cicero's echoing words against the devilish fiend Catiline? Or how manuscripts came to be illuminated? Come find out! You'll try your hand at designing the layout of the page, writing immortal words with a quill pen, sketching in drawings and adding color to them. Maybe you can even identify what work is contained in the samples- will it be Virgil, Cicero, Ovid, or a medieval author like Bede, Abelard, or Isidore of Seville? When you get home, you can proudly display your work for all to see. And you won't even have to use a time machine!
	CB 338	Advanced Latin Workshop: The Road to Emmaus Two people walk from Jerusalem to a little village the day after the first Easter and guess whom they meet? This is perhaps the most moving story from the Gospel of Luke. We'll read the story slightly adapted from the standard fourth-century Latin translation of St. Jerome. You needn't be Christian to love this story! Challenge your reading skills... for students in their third or fourth year of Latin.
	Worsham	Geocaching (2 hours) You'll need some friends and a GPS-enabled phone with a camera to participate in this event. You'll also need to be able to walk about 2 miles round trip across UK's beautiful campus. Note: Two hours is an estimate. You could take more or less time depending on your ability to locate each cache... complete with a Latin clue!
10:30	CB 343	Roman Fun & Games How did Roman teenagers polish their strategy and speed skills without video games? Why, with knucklebones and dice, of course! Discover the archaeological evidence for Roman board games, rules, and their popularity through images and discussion, then leave with a pair of dice you have fashioned yourself in Roman style. You get to choose--classical colors or neon.
	CB 338	Intro to Greek In this class, we'll learn the Greek alphabet and read names of people, gods, and place and other words that you may know already. By the end of the class you'll be reading simple sentences you may have heard already in Greek! No knowledge of Greek is required.
	CB 331	Prepared Performance Events Students who have brought events for judging will present them at this time. Audiences welcome AND encouraged!
11:00	CB 343, CB 345	Certamen
12:15		Lunch on your own
1:00	CB 338	Latin Poetry: Ancient to Modern We will read some very cool Latin poetry together, some almost 2000 years old, some less than 20 year! Together we'll try to understand these (very funny!) poems using Latin as much as we can. Of course we'll read the poems aloud with a sense for their rhythm. For students in their second year of Latin (or higher).
	CB 343	Medical Terminology Workshop Former pediatric and KODA nurse Jackie DeCroo will present a real case scenario, focus on a particular body system, and end with an activity for you to decipher.
